

Biography

Michael J. Hanly

Assistant Deputy Commissioner, Institutional Operations
Pacific Region

Mike was born in Calgary, Alberta and is a proud member of the Métis Nation of Alberta; and a graduate of the University of Saskatchewan.

He began his career in corrections in 1985 at Bowden Institution and has since worked at 6 institutions covering all levels of security as well as working in the community and head quarters.

Recent management positions including, Deputy Warden, Edmonton Institution for Women, Warden Drumheller Institution, and Director General Aboriginal Initiatives, National Headquarters

Mike has held his current assignment as Assistant Deputy Commissioner, Institutional Operations, Pacific Region since August, 2011.