

Lt Col Sazali bin Sukardi (Retired)
Senior Vice President of Strategic Research
CyberSecurity Malaysia

Lt Col Sazali bin Sukardi (Retired) is the Senior Vice President of Strategic Research, CyberSecurity Malaysia, an agency under the Ministry of Science, Technology and Innovation, Malaysia. He holds Master of Science in Information Security from Royal Holloway, University of London, Master of Arts in Defence Studies from King's College, University of London, Post Graduate Diploma in System

Analysis from Universiti Teknologi MARA, and Bachelor of Science in Civil Engineering from University of Hartford, Connecticut, USA. He was also a graduate from the Joint Services Command and Staff College, Shrivenham, United Kingdom.

His current post deals with strategic cyber security research as well as exploration of new cyber security initiatives and policies. He was the Leading Co-Chair of the Council for Security Cooperation in Asia Pacific Study Group on Cyber Security (2010-2012). He has been participating at various international platforms ie, the ASEAN Regional Forum (ARF), United Nations Group of Government Experts (UNGGE) etc representing Malaysia.

Currently, he is a part-time lecturer at Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia and HELP University in MSc Cyber Security, and a guest lecturer at the Malaysian Armed Forces Defence College. He also used to be a part-time lecturer at Malaysian Armed Forces Staff College under Executive Program by National Defense University of Malaysia (2013-2015), and at Universiti Teknologi Malaysia in MSc Information Security (2009).

He is Certified International Counter-Cybercrime Professional-Executive (CICP-EX) and Certified Chief Information Security Officer (C|CISO).