Director, AML & Investigations, Legal, Compliance, Security,
British Columbia Lottery Corporation, British Columbia, CANADA

Kevin deBruyckere is the Director of Anti-Money Laundering (AML) & Investigations for the British Columbia Lottery Corporation (BCLC), a Crown Corporation responsible for the conduct and management of gambling in BC. Kevin is responsible for ensuring BCLC's compliance with the Proceeds of Crime (Money Laundering) and Terrorist Financing Act (PCMLTFA). He has extensive experience in law enforcement with the Royal Canadian Mounted Police and at the time of his retirement in 2015 after 29 years of service, he was responsible for the federal policing program in British Columbia, including responsibility for drug enforcement, transnational organized crime investigations, white collar crime, and national security. This was followed by four years with a large international bank as its Canadian Head of Anti Money Laundering Investigations before joining BCLC in 2019 as the organization was preparing for the Cullen Commission of Inquiry into Money Laundering in BC. In 2022, Kevin earned a Masters of Business Administration degree from Royal Roads University.
